ELECTION LAW MATTER

The captioned investigation was predicated on an [REDACTED] FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI)
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

b6
b7C
b7D

During the subsequent FBI investigation, it was determined that Carl R. Channell reimbursed five individuals ($1,000 each) for contributions which they had made to the campaign of Senator Grassley during December 1985.

The investigation found no evidence that captioned subject [REDACTED] took part in illegal campaign fundraising activities.

b6
b7C

On October 31, 1988, a conference was held with Trial Attorney [REDACTED] Public Integrity Section, DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE. Attorney [REDACTED] stated she had reviewed the evidence accumulated during the FBI investigation and had concluded that the matter lacked prosecutive merit. For this reason, Attorney [REDACTED] declined prosecution and referred the matter of Carl R. Channell to the Federal Election Commission for whatever action it deemed appropriate. At the request of Attorney [REDACTED] the FBI assisted the FEC by providing the FEC with documents pertaining to Channell's activities.

b7C

On December 15, 1988, [REDACTED], Attorney, FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION (FEC), advised that his office would pursue possible civil penalties against captioned subject Carl R. Channell. During May 1990, Carl R. Channell died as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident in Washington, DC. The FEC case was still pending against Channell at the time of his death.

b6
b7C

Due to the death of Carl R. Channell, the FBI has closed its investigation of the captioned matter.
